CHC Training of Denver wins the bronze Brandon Hall Group award for the Excellence in Learning category: Best Advance in Compliance Training 2018

Denver, CO — CHC Training, a leader in innovative environmental training, recently received a coveted Brandon Hall Group bronze award for the Excellence in the Learning category: Best Advance in Compliance Training.

CHC Training is a Colorado-born, women-owned business providing occupational and environmental training and enterprise risk management solutions to a wide range of industries including environmental, abatement, restoration, construction, education, facilities management, and governmental.

“We are absolutely thrilled and honored to be recognized by the Brandon Hall Group as a leader in compliance training,” said Danaya Benedetto, Co-Founder & CEO of CHC Training. “CHC Training is changing the way the trades industries learn and maintain regulatory compliance, shifting from curriculums and regulations written technocratically, to a modern approach that employs our Main Point Analysis, hands-on training, online and in-person classes, and on-site demonstrations to our clients.”

She said: “This award is particularly special to me and the entire team at CHC Training because it helps to further validate and promote the cutting-edge education and compliance model that we have worked so hard to create in order to revolutionize the environmental training industry across the nation.”

CHC Training’s win was announced on August 31st. All other 2018 winners are listed at:

“Excellence Award winners personify innovation that drives business results. Our winners embrace the future and embrace change and the challenges that go with it,” said Rachel Cooke, Chief Operating Officer of Brandon Hall Group and head of the awards program. “It is amazing in reviewing these entries how organizations – both large and small – work across functions to make human capital management a valuable asset that enables business success.”

The award entries were evaluated by a panel of veteran, independent senior industry experts, Brandon Hall Group analysts and executives based upon the following criteria: fit the need, design of the program, functionality, innovation, and overall measurable benefits.

Excellence Awards winners will be honored at Brandon Hall Group’s HCM Excellence Conference, January 23-25, 2019, at the Hilton West Palm Beach in Florida. Select winners also will serve as presenters in breakout sessions sharing their leading practices during the 2½-day conference.

“The excellence of our award winners allows us to create unique content that actively involves attendees and gives them proven solutions to adapt to their own environment when they get home,” Brandon Hall Group CEO Mike Cooke said. “The conference also affords these award winners some well-deserved recognition and validation for the risks they took to take HCM to the next level in their companies.”

About CHC Training

CHC Training is the go-to source for expert environmental training offered in both online and live classroom formats. All courses are designed by instructors and developers using a learner-focused approach, resulting in a useful, and more effective training experience. Operating under a different company name, CHC Training has been teaching in Colorado and Wyoming since 2007. In 2015, CHC Training Founders, Dan and Danaya, decided to revolutionize the environmental training industry by completely redesigning antiquated OSHA and EPA curriculums to be more student-focused and modern. This innovative approach resulted in the creation of highly interactive online and live courses that emphasize the practicality of federal and state regulations for the hazardous material and construction trades. CHC Training is known for their innate ability to meld regulatory guidance with engaging, responsive modules to effectively prepare students for their careers. In every class, students receive current, real-world customized content that they can take out of the classroom and into the field, guaranteed.
